

GARY DUMAS HARTFORD POLICE UNION SCHOLARSHIP

Retired Hartford Police Sergeant Gary Dumas grew up in Hartford, Connecticut and joined the Hartford Police Department in 1974 as a Police Cadet. As a member of the Police Department, he held numerous positions in the Hartford Police Union including Vice President from 1990-1994. Upon retirement from the Police Department in 1998, Gary Dumas began consulting for the Hartford Police Union which he remains doing today. He has an immense knowledge of the collective bargaining process between the City and the Union. He has been extremely successful representing the membership during grievance procedures and he currently trains new stewards on how to best represent the membership. His unwavering commitment to the Hartford Police Union is appreciated by the entire membership. Accordingly, in 2018 the Hartford Police Union is proud to start the Gary Dumas Hartford Police Union Scholarship.
